

EXAMPLES OF MORNING HERO MESSAGES

Strong people stand up for themselves, but the strongest people stand up for others...Be someone's Hero.

I always wondered why somebody didn't do something about that...Then I realized, I am somebody.

Today is Hero Wednesday. It is a perfect day to remember that there are people in this building, both adults and students, who are going through hard times and difficulties. If you could take a minute to show kindness to someone you don't even know, it may not change your life, but it will make a world of difference to them.

Good morning. Today is Hero Wednesday. Your voice has much more power than you realize, and it will reach people and places that you couldn't even imagine. So, please don't be afraid to use it to make a positive difference. Be someone's Hero... Because after all, wouldn't you want someone to do that for you?

Let's make our school an example for other schools. A school where kids help each other out...a school where kids are nice to each other. Bullying and being mean is not ok. It's just plain wrong. Please do the right thing and Be a Hero in the Hallway. It will make a difference.
